

Estate Pinot Noir
Dundee Hills, Oregon
2017

Our story began in 1971 when our parents, Susan Sokol and Bill Blosser, first planted vines in Oregon's Dundee Hills. As second generation winegrowers, we are passionately committed to our family's legacy of creating world-class wines, through sustainable methods, which express our distinctive hillside vineyards.

“A complex, youthful nose with plenty of potential, as the spicy oak sits up across brambly, fresh and vibrant cherry aromas. The palate has a very succulent feel – plenty of moreish appeal here. The tannins are so juicy and alluring. Really expansive at the finish. Drink or hold.”

“A wonderful wine, this encapsulates both the natural finesse of Pinot Noir and the precision of the better 2017s. Raspberry, soft tanned leather and sandalwood highlights meld nicely. It's a seductive, fairly open wine, drinking well at this young age, with just a hint of pine threading through the finish.”
