

Sokol Blosser

Sustainability plays a critical role in how we measure our success at Sokol Blosser. Our definition of sustainability is based on doing good as measured through the triple bottom line. Simply put: it is using our business as a force for good across all aspects of people, planet and profit.

OUR LEGACY & FUTURE

Pioneering Oregon winery

Established in 1971

Founded by Bill & Susan Sokol Blosser

First vintage in 1977

Now run by 2nd generation Co-Presidents

Alison Sokol Blosser, CEO Alex Sokol Blosser, Winemaker

8 members in the 3rd generation

Will remain family-owned

B CORP CERTIFIED

As recognition of our commitment to sustainability and to provide a framework for becoming even more sustainable, we became B Corp certified on April 15, 2015.

1 of 30
wineries worldwide

2017, 2018
& 2019
awarded Best for the World: Changemakers list

2018, 2019
& 2021
awarded Best for the World: Environment

As of 2021, earned
136 points
of out a possible of 200 points

GOOD TO THE PLANET

Being good stewards of the land to leave it in as good or better shape for the next generation is a key part of being sustainable at Sokol Blosser.

USDA organic certified by Oregon Department of Agriculture

Salmon Safe Certified

Onsite 25kW solar panel system

Renewable wind power purchased from PGE

50% biodiesel in vineyard tractors & trucks

Electric vehicle charging station onsite

Member of the Prescott Western Bluebird Recovery Project

U.S. Green Building Council LEED-certified barrel cellar; we were the first winery in the world to achieve this certification in 2002

Packaging, POS and Supplies are sourced from local and sustainable options as much as possible

Packaging is heavily integrated with our sustainability efforts.

FAST FACTS

Family-owned & family-operated

Farm 106 certified organic acres

Dundee Hills AVA Estate Vineyard

Eola-Amity Hills AVA Blossom Ridge Vineyard

Purchased 22-acre Kalita Vineyard in 2021

Yamhill-Carlton AVA - transitioning to organic

2012 - 2021: voted a Top 100 Best Green Company to Work for in Oregon by Oregon Business Magazine

We support and encourage our employees as well as care for the community in which we do business.

- Offer comprehensive and generous benefits program for employees
- Offer volunteer paid time off
- Support local charities with in-kind donations
- Value and promote a diverse work environment

ON OUR ESTATE

Bee colonies Organic fruit orchard

Organic vegetable garden 11 bird boxes

Composting 2 barn owl boxes

Battery recycling program